GIRLS NEED GOTR

Here's why:

Girls' self-confidence begins to drop by age nine.

Physical activity starts to decline at age ten and continues to decrease as girls age.

50% of girls ages 10 to 13 experience bullying.

Only 24% of six- to 17-year-olds participate in at least 60 minutes of physical activity every day.

57% of U.S. teen girls felt persistently sad or hopeless in 2021 – double that of boys and representing a nearly 60% increase over the past decade.

• Girls on the Run Lancaster annually serves more than 1500 participants.

- Since 2009, over 21,000 teammates have participated in our program.
- More than 1000 volunteers (including caring coaches) support, uplift, and inspire our girls every year.
- Over 8,000 participants and spectators attend our 5K Celebrations every year.

GET INVOLVED WITH GOTR

HOSTING A TEAM:

Provide a Site

- Offer a safe, accessible outdoor place with a restroom (and a designated indoor space for inclement weather)
- Accommodate a regular practice schedule of 2 times a week for 90 minutes

Secure a Site Liaison

- Act as the main site contact for families, participants, and council staff
- Help recruitment efforts and distribute marketing materials
- Provide families with registration assistance
- Identify 3 coaches from your site and/or community*

At a time when girls may be struggling to fit in or find their voice, our programs reassure them that they belong.

By hosting a team, you will inspire girls to embrace their individuality, make new friends, and find joy in movement.

*If you cannot secure coaches, have no fear! Girls on the Run will work with you to identify coaches from our volunteer pool.

Transforming Lives

Three programs, one life-changing impact.

Girls on the Run is the only physical activity-based, positive youth development program for girls with a research-based curriculum, trained coaches, and a commitment to serving all girls.

Every practice, coaches lead teams through fun and engaging activities that innovatively blend social emotional life skills with physical movement.
